In this article, we will be taking a look at how gambling-and more specifically online gambling-can influence your credit score.

Will gambling have a negative impact on my credit rating? In short, gambling will not have a negative impact on your credit score.

This isn't to say gambling is safe-it should always be carried out with caution.

When you apply for credit or a loan, lenders may further investigate your spendings, including requesting access to your bank statements.

Indirect implications of gambling and online betting addiction

Putting too much money into gambling may mean you are unable to afford your loan repayments, and a potential debt cycle begins.

Overdrafts and gambling debts Similarly to taking out a loan, if your gambling habit takes you into an unarranged overdraft your credit score could be at risk. How to prevent and recover from gambling debt
