Vermont Sports Betting Laws Summary

Vermont may move towards legalization but probably not in the immediate future.

Historically, residents of the Green Mountain State with an interest in casino gaming had to travel to nearby casinos in New York.

Due to this, support can be found for professional teams from around New England.

The bill introduced in June 2017 makes fantasy sports legal for anyone over the age of 18.

DraftKings, FanDuel, Yahoo and Fantasy Draft are all available for real money wagering when you're in Vermont.

Check back on this page for updates on any major developments that change Vermont's outlook in terms of legalized sports gambling.
