In these games, the players' cards are dealt face down, and players pick up the cards.

Leave those cards on the table, but mentally add them to your total hand value.

Remember that you do give up something for being allowed to increase your bet: the ability to draw more than one additional card.

1: Never hit a hard 17 or above.

Remember there are more 10 value cards (10, J, Q, K) than any other cards in the deck-so when a 10 will get you close to 21 and you are against a card that is bad for the dealer, you should double.

Some games offer the player a chance to fold their hand, and forfeit half of their bet.

Generally, the dealer in blackjack must hit if he has a total of 16 or less, and stand if he has 17 or more.
